mobility mICC International Camp on Communication & Computers
for people with motor disabilities

Campus of the Johannes Kepler University in Linz

mICC 2014 in Linz Austria offers you a very special opportunity to learn how Information and Communication Technology (ICT) and Assistive Technologies (AT) enrich the life of people with motor disabilities.

Students from about 4 European countries will enjoy plenty of opportunities for intercultural activities, communication and networking, planning for future study and job integration, fun and leisure activities.

Who? 16 - 20 years of age

When? 25th - 31th of August 2014

Where? Linz, Upper Austria

Come and get involved!

Great ideas inspire others!

This is the case with the mICC which derives from the example and experience of the Johannes Kepler University in Linz, Austria. The university has co-organised a total of 20 ICC camps on computers and communication for blind and partially sighted students since 1993. There have been camps in many European countries including Romania, Greece, Italy and of course, Austria.

mICC: Much More than Technology

Handling ICT and AT have become a prerequisite for people with motor disabilities to enable inclusion in education, vocational training, leisure, culture, politics and more. Skills in handling ICT and AT in the information society with a growing awareness of accessibility have become a key success factor.

mICC's focus is on making the best use of ICT in the best way for

- + Interaction and communication
- + Integration in education (school/university)
- + Enhanced opportunities in the labour market
- + Independent living and leisure time activities

mICC is an incentive to acquire the skills needed for your own future!

mICC is international, a unique occasion to enjoy yourself and to get the feeling of being part of a greater international community of colleagues and peers with similar interests.

Workshops

We are offering a programme of workshops focusing on:

- + Newest ICT / AT (e.g. internet, music, games and more)
- + Social, presentation and daily living skills
- + ICT and AT supported mobility
- + Starting your studies at university
- + Job search and labour market integration skills
- + Social media

Learning with laughter!

Leisure

mICC is fun! Enjoy fascinating and challenging activities you never thought of – together with peers from all around the world!

Language

The language used at the camp is English. Having good spoken English skills is absolutely necessary to enable you to benefit from the programme.

Expenses

Participation in the camp is free of charge.

Care

Participants enjoy the training and supervision of experts coming from universities and specialist organisations from 4 European countries.

A trainer : participant ratio of 1 : 3 – that also applies to the varied leisure time programme (excursions, swimming, games etc.) – guarantees individual support.

Technical equipment

All equipment, including individual AT, will be made available on site.

Organisation

mICC is managed by Diakonie Austria, based on the model from the International Association ICC, a non profit organisation with national co-ordinators in more than 30 countries.
